

AT THE END OF THE WORLD: MUSEUMS

ANTIKENMUSEUM BASEL

This semester we will continue questioning Museums as institutions, buildings and practices. Our focus will shift to Basel, a city with colonial entanglements and a rich museum history, to work on the Antikenmuseum und Sammlung Ludwig. We will deepen our research on the Museum's ecology, imagine new programs and reshape the role of the institution through architectural transformation projects.